Purpose of this policy

To ensure schools satisfy their duty of care in supervising students.

Prerequisite policy

- Duty of Care

Policy

Principals must:

- arrange for student supervision according to school needs
- ensure staff are aware of their responsibilities to supervise students during school times as well as before and after school.

Note: School authorities in breach of their duty of care may be liable for injuries to students.

In schools there must be clearly allocated specific responsibilities to staff members to undertake student supervision, as determined by the needs of the school, to protect students from reasonably foreseeable risks of injury including hazard that:

- are known
- could have been foreseen and prevented.

Note: This duty extends to intervention in single sex areas by a teacher of the other gender, if required.

Supervision responsibilities before and after school

This table identifies supervision responsibilities.

Who	Are responsible for the care and supervision of students:
Parents/ guardians	<ul style="list-style-type: none">travelling to and from schooloutside the times of school supervision before and after school. See: Student Collection with: School pickup procedure ensuring: <ul style="list-style-type: none">school supervision is provided for a minimum of 10 minutes before and after schoolparents/guardians are regularly informed about supervision available before and after schoolsufficient teachers are available to supervise the departure of students at the end of the school dayteachers supervising departures are not called away for other duties without alternate supervision being arranged
Principals	Note: More supervision may be required: <ul style="list-style-type: none">before or after school, based on local circumstancesfor primary students, particularly prep students.

Supervision in specific circumstances

This table lists supervision requirements/considerations for specific circumstances.

Circumstance	Guidelines
Recess and lunch times	Students must be supervised during recess and lunch. For students who seek to leave school premises during lunch or recess, procedures must be in place that incorporate: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• written parent/guardian requests for students under 18 on the leave application form• lunch passes. Principals decide how much supervision to provide for formal cross-age tutoring programs based on: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the age and maturity of students• size of the group• nature of the activities• the location within the school.
Cross age tutoring
Outside school grounds	Primary students must be supervised at all times. The degree of supervision to be provided for secondary students leaving the school during school hours to engage in educational, sport or other activities is a matter for parental decision by of the correct form. Deciding on the level of supervision needs to balance safety with school programs where students are encouraged to undertake activities outside the school either individually or in small groups.
Swimming Pools	Students must be supervised at all times while using a swimming pool (including if a swimming pool is owned by a school, privately or by the municipal council). Visiting speakers do not have the authority to supervise students in schools.

Supervision before and after school - Principal Considerations

This table describes additional supervisory considerations at the beginning and end of the school day, for principals.

To deal with	Principals
	may organise supervision of entry and exit points that considers:
school entry and exit points	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> the entry or exit points that are, or should be, used road traffic conditions designated pick up and drop off areas whether any entry or exit points should be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - locked - designated as out of bounds - supervised.
contract buses	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> should arrange supervision of the arrival and departure of school contract buses that takes into account the: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - number of students - age of students - times of the arrival and departure - proximity of the pick-up and drop-off points in relation to the school grounds - behaviour of students on the bus and when boarding or alighting. may consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - working with bus contractors to develop an efficient timetable including possible staggered arrival and departure times to accommodate supervision - a code of behaviour or conduct for students who use school contract buses - using a buddy system for younger students - using bus captains or monitors.
	Parents should consider:
prep students using transport	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> additional supervision providing parents/guardians with bus information at parent orientation meetings maintaining a roll of prep students who use public transport establishing a 'marshalling point' for prep students from which they can be guided to buses guiding prep students to buses which stop at the school at the end of the day.

Parent/guardian support

This table describes strategies schools can use to encourage parents/guardians to support supervision before and after school.

To assist schools to	Parents/guardians can be encouraged to consider:
ensure student safety when travelling to and from school	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• whether their child is old and experienced enough to use public transport• how they can help educate their child in traffic safety• whether their child will need to cross busy roads to walk or catch transport.
maintain student rolls setting out students' usual travel arrangements	always let the school know when students' usual travel arrangements are to change, even temporarily.
maintain preferred or mandatory points of exit for students at the end of the day	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• use these exits• make sure that students are familiar with these exits and use them.
apply traffic controls at the beginning and end of the school day	obey parking regulations, speed limits and other traffic controls to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• help to create a safe environment at exits to schools• show respect to neighbours who live close to the school.
to provide adequate supervision for students entering or exiting the school at the beginning and end of the school day	avoid talking to teachers who are supervising entry or exits or school buses about their child's progress and should arrange another time for this discussion.
