Expressions of Interest – Leadership Opportunities

John Calvin School, Tasmania is preparing for a leadership and organisational review, taking place in Term 4 2025/Term 1 2026 D.V.

This review aims to form and optimise our structure, and direction for the future. As part of this process, we are seeking expressions of interest from educators, aspiring and experienced leaders, passionate about Reformed Christian education.

While specific leadership roles are yet to be finalised, we anticipate opportunities in areas of school administration, educational leadership, and organisational management. We anticipate positions across a range of leadership areas and levels.

Who we're looking for:

We are seeking expressions of interest from a wide range of individuals with the following:

- A member of the FRCA or one of her sister churches
- A strong commitment to Reformed education
- Experience in education, leadership or management roles
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Ability to communicate effectively and build strong, supportive relationships
- A commitment to collaborative practice
- Formal qualifications in education, management, leadership, or a related field will be well regarded.

Interested? What's next?

Shortlisted applicants will be contacted for further discussion as the organisational review progresses.

Please submit an Expression of Interest, together with your resume, to board@jcs.tas.edu.au
